

Valerie Rogers

Paintings On Display

The artists in the Salmon Arm and surrounding areas are very busy this summer. There has been a tremendous amount of wonderful art work created locally and with the summer upon us, it is time to share that work with the public" in the SAGA Public Art Gallery on August 4th. Music is his inspiration and is featured in his pastels.

The Artwaves Summer School of the Arts has started and is giving everyone the chance to learn new artistic techniques from the experts. As a kick off event they had the Artwaves Artist Tour. It was a chance to see local artists at work in their own studios. If you missed it, please give those artists a call and arrange a time to drop by. Another upcoming SAGA Art event is the "Paint the Town" on August 6 when local artists set up all around town and paint on location. The SAGA gallery will then have an opening and display the day's work at 7 pm that evening. Wander about and check up on these artists public. Art shows and displays abound. In the early part of this summer we had a host of great visual art shows. The Sicomous Paint and Palette club had a wonderful and well attended show in the Red Barn for the July 1 weekend. Visitors were able to admire varied styles of artwork, porcelain and jewelry with delightful harp music enhancing the show. The Sorrento Seven, a group of talented painters from Sorrento had a very successful show last month. The art work was in a number of different mediums making for a beautiful mix of textures and colours. The Blind Bay Painters also had their summer show with numerous members displaying their work. This is a show that tourist and locals look forward to all year. Art in Tandem was a brand new Salmon Arm show with local artists Valerie Rogers and Teyjah McAren. It was a great show and hopefully will be an annual event. If by chance you missed those events there is still lots coming up. The Shuswap Lake Festival of the Arts runs from July 16 - 24 with over 300 pieces of artwork. This is a must see for everyone. The SAGA art gallery is showing the unique work of Otto Pfannschmidt. Otto's work expresses his feelings about war. He will as they create a painting on location. Maps will be available at the gallery and the Salmon Arm Credit Union.

Teyjah McAren.

Another show to look forward to is Lakeside Manor Art show starting August 5th. This will be a collection of work from fifteen local artists displayed in the attractive new building located across the tracks. Take a walk along the waterfront and stop in and admire the artwork. Keep your eyes out for other visual arts events or just grab your own paint box and get out to paint in the Shuswap.

host a discussion group on July 28, 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm at the gallery. Take the opportunity to drop in as his show continues until July 30. Then Hanny Kooyman will be presenting his pastels "A Community of Mu-

War & Creature Paintings
Works by Otto Pfannschmidt